++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloud and rain edging north, clearing south again on Sunday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with clear spells through the first part of the night. However, more general cloud and patchy outbreaks of rain will spread north into the south of the region after midnight. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Sunday:
Probably staying dry in the far north of the region. Outbreaks of rain across more southern parts will become heavier for a time, before clearing away south through the afternoon. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday bright and breezy with just the odd shower. Tuesday breezy and rather cloudy with some showery rain, especially in the west. Rather cloudy with a little showery rain Wednesday.
